

The Learning Center Interventionist

- Delivers individualized or small group instruction in the areas of reading, writing, math, and/or executive functioning skills to students in grades 1-12.
- Interventionists deliver services either virtually or in the HA Learning Center during mutually-agreed-upon times and days (part-time or full-time)

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Online or in-person, one-on-one or small group intervention.
- Development of individualized learning plans.
- On-time completion of required lesson plans and reporting documentation.
- Consistent and timely communication.
- An organized and safe workspace.
- Application of HA Learning Center assessments to monitor student progress.
- Professional representation of the HA Learning Center
- Completion of required professional development trainings

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's Degree
- Orton-Gillingham Training and/or
- Multi-Sensory Math Training and/or
- The Writing Revolution Training and/or
- Executive Function Training